The Tycquet Twins: Summer Holiday is the first in a series of middle school books by popular author and presenter, Judy Crawford. It is the Tycquet twins first adventure story! Thirteen-year-old twins, Tylan and Trina face stormy, tumultuous teen experiences during the summer months that they spend under the protective care of their great-aunt, Aunt Madge. The fact that their parents were working abroad gave the twins a chance to develop their own coping skills and a little independence on their great-aunt's acreage. They search for ways to be accepted by their peers, learn to believe in themselves, experience the joys of hard work, face new challenges and accept change.

A seasoned presenter, Judy Crawford is commonly invited into the schools to discuss topics such as anti-bullying, writing and creativity. Her presentations get excellent reviews from parents, teachers and students. Judy pushes youth to better themselves.
