Wanda Campbell reads from Grace, 101 poems "for the way". As refreshing as a morning shower, as calming as a mother's smile, as hopeful as the light of dawn, this collection is a graceful start to any day. Ms Campbell truly understands the strength and power that lies behind real grace.

"I love her oftimes earthy style. Her work does NOT suffer from religiosity and stuffiness. There is a freshness here that I'm finding to be a most pleasant surprise."

~ Larry J. Fisk, Professor Emeritus of Political, Peace and Conflict Studies, Calgary, AB
